

LB 171

April 4, 1973

SPEAKER: Any further discussion? Ready for the Carstens amend-, to vote on the Carstens amendment. All those in favor of the Carstens amendment say aye, the Clerk will read the amendment.

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: Alright all those in favor of the amendment say aye, opposed no, the amendment is adopted. Now Senator Carpenter, are there any further amendments Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, Senator Carpenter now has an amendment (read).

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: The purpose of these amendments is, in both cases, both school, that they be given to the state of Nebraska, in whatever area they are to be located, free and clear of all encumbrances. I move for the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER: Is there any discussion of the amendment? All those in favor, Senator Carstens.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Mr. President I, may I ask Senator Carpenter a question?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Did I understand you to say that both schools are to be given to the, whoever accepts them, free of charge?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes, I don't want to be in the position of bailing anybody out.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Well I don't know, it's a kind of an awkward position to put me in at this moment, I, I thought it was understood that we would have this effect Hiram Scott, which is in the process of being given.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well you can strike that out of your if you so desire.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Well I would move, I would amend this amendment to eliminate Pershing College from this portion.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I have no objections.

SPEAKER: Does the Clerk understand the amendment?

CLERK: I can find it Mr. President.

SPEAKER: This is Senator Carstens amendment to Senator Carpenter's amendment to the bill.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Understand I'm not in any way opposing or interfering with what Senator Carpenter's trying to do except I'm in no way and no position now to do this.

SPEAKER: The Chair will restate the question, subject to any comments that Senator Carpenter's motion as the Chair understands it is that the grounds and the building will be given free of any encumbrances, Senator Carstens amendment to that is to not have this provision apply to Pershing College, is that essentially correct gentlemen? Now is there any further discussion, Senator Richard Lewis.

SENATOR RICHARD LEWIS: Mr. President and members of the legislature I'd like to ask Senator Carpenter a question is he would yield?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Certainly.
